ANTI-CORRUPTION

Global Compact Network Kenya (GCNK) is the Local Network of the United Nations Global Compact that is working to accelerate and scale the collective impact of businesses in Kenya by upholding the Ten Principles on Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-corruption and delivering the SDGs through accountable companies and ecosystems that enable change.

Established in 2005, Global Compact Network Kenya has more than 270+ participants in Kenya with over 700 others signed to our local Code of Ethics for Business – an initiative of the Global Compact, Kenya Association of Manufacturers (KAM) and Kenya Private Sector Alliance (KEPSA).

WE ENABLE KENYAN COMPANIES TO:

Drive impact on specific goals

Where businesses have an outsized effect on outcomes

Scale collective action

Companies of all sizes, geographies and sectors, across value chains and through entire ecosystems can contribute

Make measurable progress

Through a public reporting platform for all stakeholders to track our progress working with companies

WAYS TO ENGAGE WITH US

Why join Global Compact Network Kenya? Here is how you benefit

Global Compact Network Kenya convenes industry experts, peers and with the United Nations at the national level. By participating in high-level events, your company gains a place at the table where the future is built.

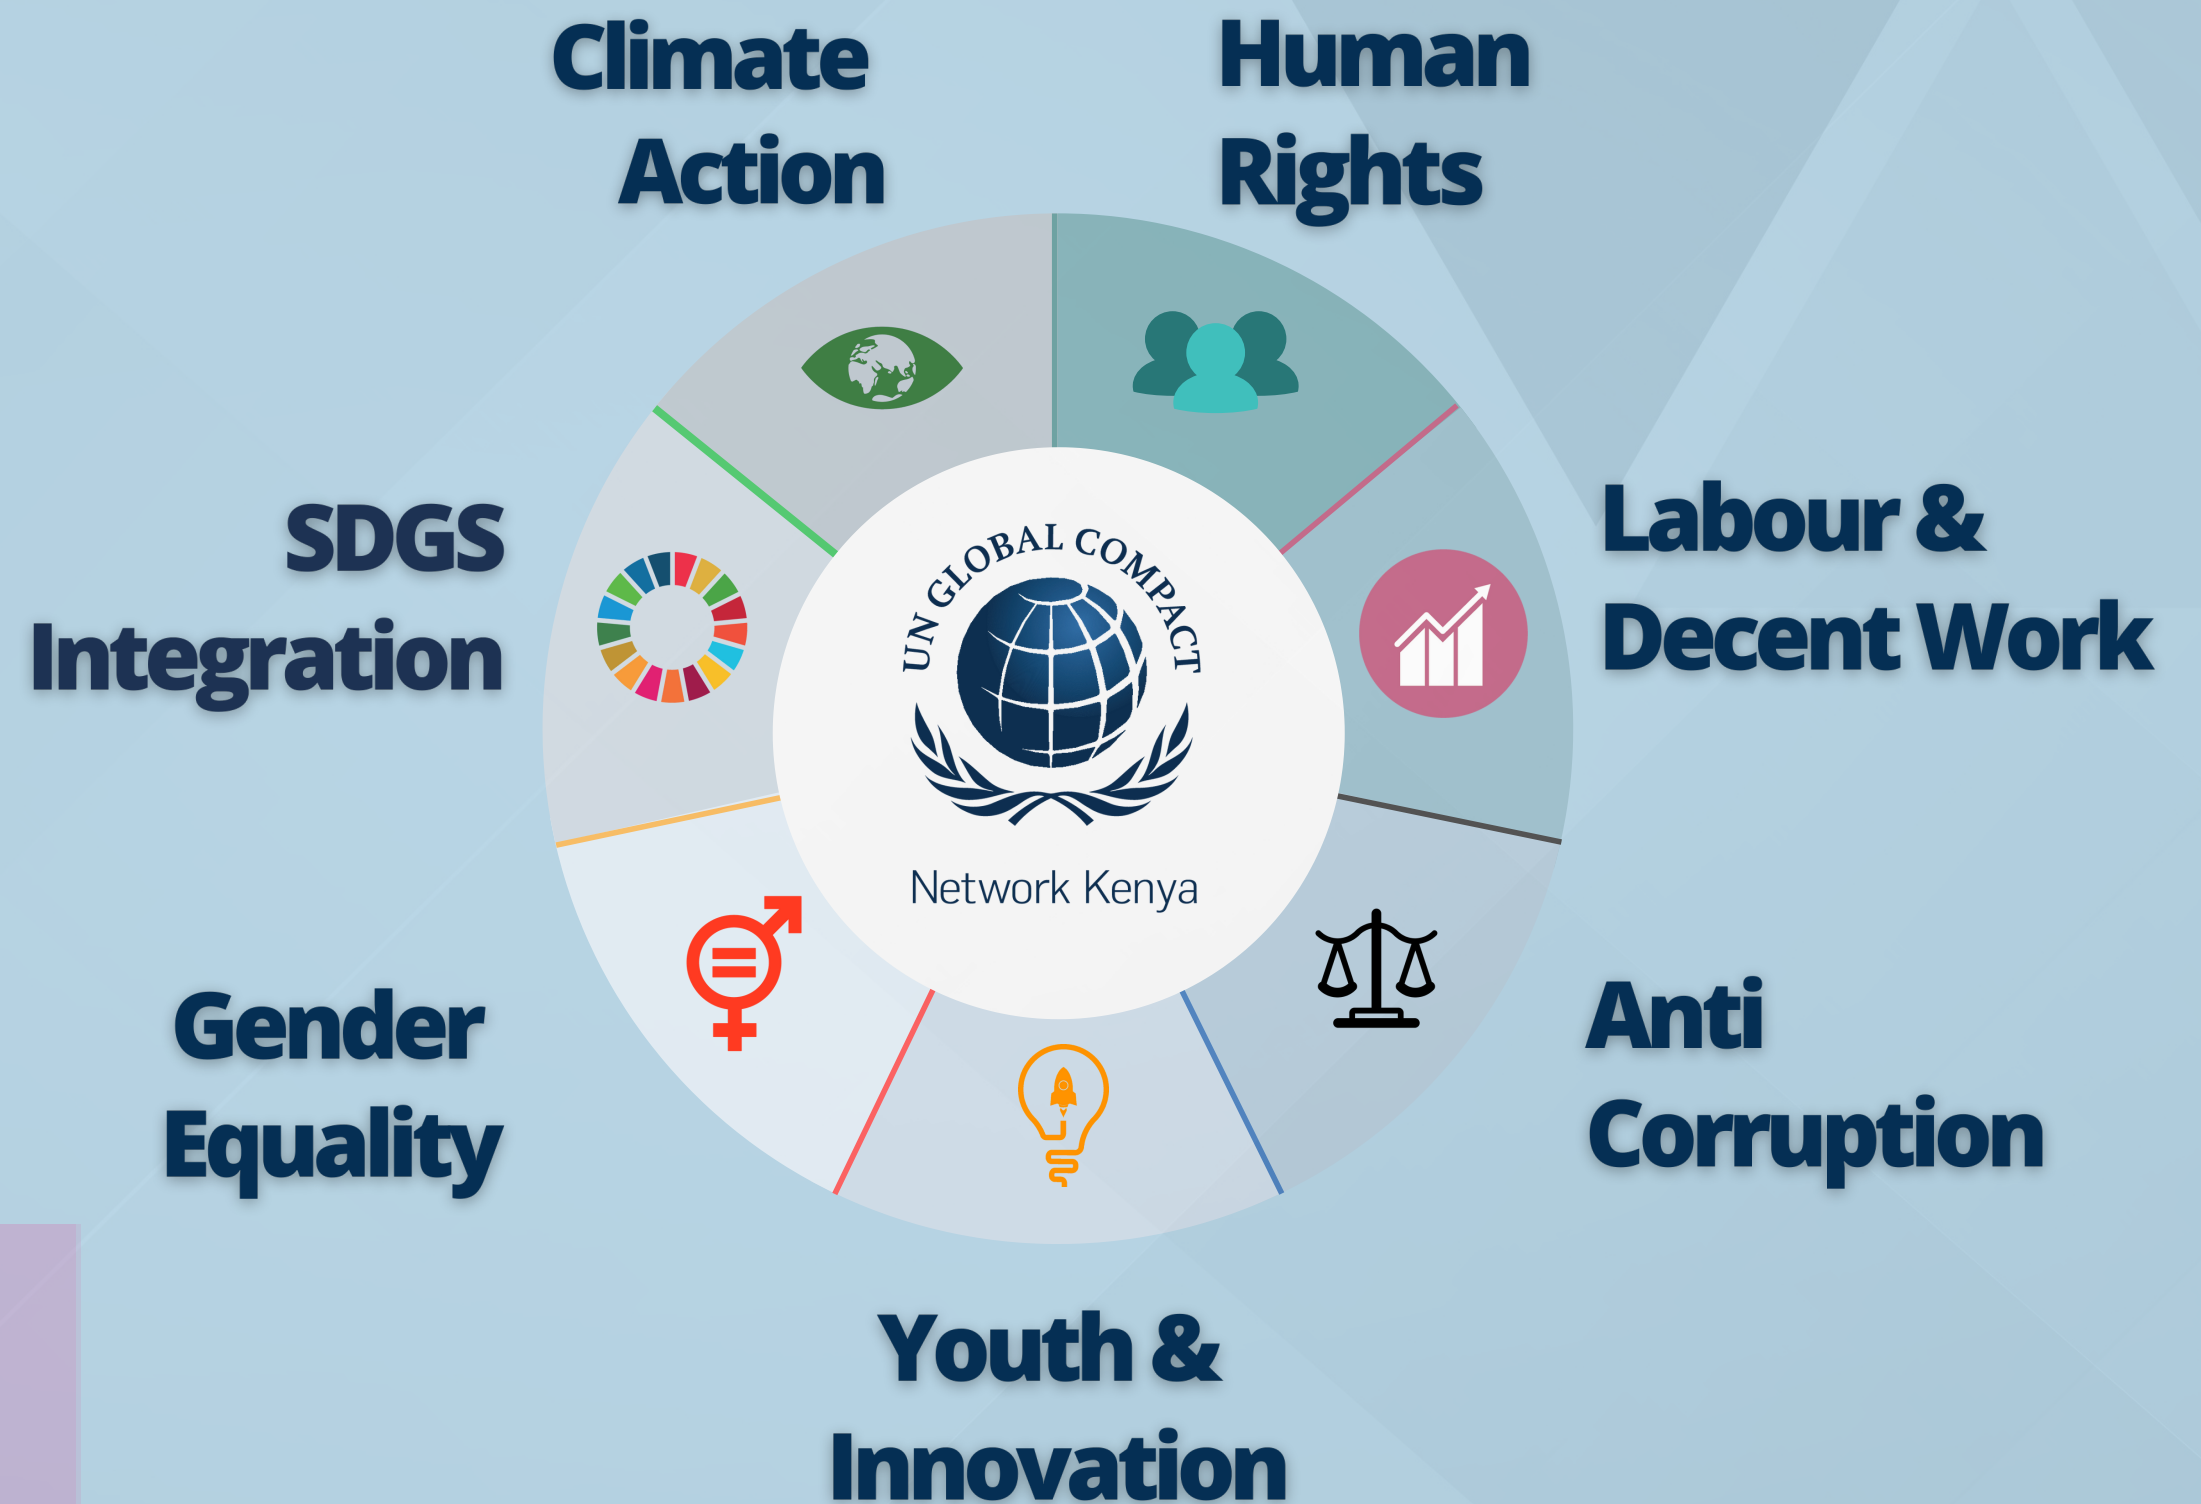

Enhance the impact of your business practices on sustainability through our guidance and tools, capacity building and trainings, peer learning groups and accelerators. Show bold leadership and inspire others through your influence and advocacy for change

Build trust and credibility by communicating measurable progress towards your sustainability goals and targets through our annual Communication on Progress and get recognized for your work through our Recognition Programmes.

THE TEN PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS GLOBAL COMPACT

HUMAN RIGHTS

1. Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
2. make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses

LABOUR

3. Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
4. the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
5. the effective abolition of child labour; and
6. the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

ENVIRONMENT

7. Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
8. undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
9. encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

ANTI CORRUPTION

10. Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.
